About the house

William Temple House is a self-catering residence for 50 male and female students of all nationalities and faiths, who are in full-time education. It's run by an independent Anglican charity and is situated two minutes' walk from Earls Court Tube Station. There are three large kitchens, and separate toilet and shower facilities for men and women.

Other amenities include free WiFi throughout, a lounge with TV, a study room, a laundry room and a lovely garden. Communal areas of the House are cleaned daily, but residents are responsible for cleaning their own rooms. We can provide bed linen, but residents should bring their own kitchen utensils.

Please note smoking is not allowed in any part of the House, except the garden. If any resident (or their guest) breaks this rule they will have their residency terminated immediately. Residents may also have their residency terminated if they violate any of the other House Rules.
